Bleeding Hands, Weeping Stone: Miracles of the Church by Elizabeth Ficocelli

“The most incredible thing about miracles is that they happen.”
- G.K. Chesterton

Reflective Questions

- Do you believe in miracles? If so, what miracles have been the most moving to you?
- Miracles are a tangible way in which God reaches out to us and shows us His love and protection for us. Challenge yourself, this Lent, to pray to God and ask Him to open your heart and mind to the subject of the miraculous in history and in the simplicity of your everyday life.
- Lent is a time for us to work toward God in our spiritual growth. Open your heart through prayer, this Lent, to see the miraculous aspect of God and of our faith. Have you experienced any miracles in your life? Big or small? If so, what were these miracles? What have these miracles meant for your life?
- We suggest that you take time this Lent to look up a Church-approved miracle that has occurred in your area. Make a pilgrimage to the church or shrine and visit an example of a holy miracle in real life!
