Prayer, Penance and Almsgiving: Reordering Our Lives to the Gospel with Jon Leonetti

Reflective Questions

“Hearing nuns’ confessions is like being stoned to death with popcorn.”

- Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

1. Jon explains the three steps to take to reorder your life to God. The first is prayer. As he suggests, schedule time every day to pray to God and create a designated place in your home for prayer.
2. The second step is penance. If you haven’t already, make going to confession a habit. Go at least every 6-8 weeks and go to priest that can help you walk through life.
3. The last step is almsgiving. Jon suggests you give your time, talent and treasure. What is a way that you could give your time and talent in your community?
4. Have you had to reorder your life towards God before? If so, what were the circumstances and how did you realize you needed to make a change?
