Hearing God's Voice with Jim Schuster

Reflective Questions

“Father, I am seeking: I am hesitant and uncertain, but will you, O God, watch over each step of mine and guide me.” — St. Augustine

1. Have you ever had a Bible verse pop into your head for no apparent reason? Has this happened recently at all? Maybe with music, or something else... What do you think God might have trying to be communicate through these things? How could you be more aware in the coming weeks of His presence and His voice in your daily life?
2. The centurion had enough faith that just one word from God would be powerful enough to heal His servant. God's voice is healing. How have you heard His healing voice in the past?
3. Jim reminds us that there's a need to discern what we're hearing in prayer — it's not always God's voice that we might be hearing. So Jim gives us a list of qualities as a check-list of sorts so that we can discern whether what we're hearing is from God. What are some examples of things that came to you in prayer that you thought were from God, but maybe weren't? Or, examples of things that came to you that you didn't realize were from God, but might be?
4. God's voice calms while satan's voice obsesses. When have you felt calmed in the last week? When have you felt at peace? Do you think God might have been trying to speak to you in that moment? What do you think He was saying?
