The Good News-ization, Part I with Dominick Albano

Reflective Questions

"The Church is missionary by nature and her principal task is evangelization, which aims to proclaim and to witness to Christ and to promote his Gospel of peace and love in every environment and culture."

— Pope Benedict XVI

1. Dominick shared a story about how his aunt felt like God was showing her that He was going to take care of her in the wake of her husband's passing. Have you experienced moments like that before, little moments of "coincidences" or kind gestures that pointed you towards God?
2. God calls every one of us to evangelize, to share the Good News. What kind of good news do you share on a daily basis with those around you?
3. How do you think your neighbors, your friends or coworkers would describe you and the life you're living? Do you think they see or know about your faith?
4. How do you cultivate joy in your life and share that with others?
5. We're all called to share our time, attention, and energy generously with others, loving them and being Christ to them. How do you do that in your life? Is there someone you know that does this especially well? What is it like when you are loved by someone who does that well?
6. Jesus wants us to have peace, He wants us to believe He's got this — we don't have to take care of everything on our own. Have there been instances or moments of your life where you had more or less peace? Why was that? What happened as a result of having more peace in that instance? How can you rely more on the Lord when something comes up that threatens your peace?
