Reflective Questions

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.” – John 10:27

1. Beth emphasizes the importance of reading God's Word consistently as we try to hear God's voice in our lives. How often do you read or pray with Scripture? How can you work on diving more deeply into God's Word?
2. God speaks to us not only through His Word, but also through the Church, through other people, through created things, and through our desires. In what ways has God spoken to you in the past?
3. As we discern whether God is speaking to us, it is important to remember God's kindness and mercy. How can the knowledge of God's great mercy and love for us influence the way you think about Him disciplining you?
4. One way we can discern that God is in fact speaking to us is if we experience peace. Have you ever felt peace when it seemed God might be speaking to you in the past? What did this peace lead to in your life?
