Turning Back to God in Prayer with Jon Leonetti

Reflective Questions

“I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me.” Gal. 2:20

1. Jon admits that he has had a hard time trusting God in his life and allowing God to truly take control of his life. Have you ever struggled with this in your life? How can you work on growing in your trust in God?
2. Many people in our world today chase after material goods in hope of achieving happiness. In your life, what things have you sought as you have searched for happiness? Have you ever tried to substitute things for a relationship with God?
3. Sometimes, we can have the tendency to think of prayer as a kind of divine vending machine where we ask for specific things and get what we want. Have you ever thought of prayer in a way like this? How can you work on growing to a deeper appreciation of prayer as an intimate relationship with God?
