Reflective Questions

“And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them.’”

Revelation 21: 3

1. Do you truly believe that God desires to dwell in your heart? Why or why not?
2. Beth reminds us that if we want Christ to dwell in our hearts we must allow ourselves to be transformed so that our hearts would be a home—a palace—fit for the King. What are the things that you need to surrender to Jesus so that He can truly make His dwelling in you?
3. The Sacrament of Confession helps prepare you to more worthily receive Jesus in the Eucharist. When was the last time you went to confession? Is there something holding you back from this profound sacrament of healing?
4. Do you feel as though you've found your home in Christ? What are some ways you could start (or continue) to develop this intimacy with Him, particularly within the Eucharist?
