Reflective Questions

“I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven; hence, she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.’ He said to her, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’”

Luke 7:47-48

1. Where did you place yourself in the story? Did you find yourself in the place of the woman, Christ, Simon, the Pharisee, or another bystander to these events?
2. What word or phrase stood out to you most in the reading?
3. What do you think the Lord was trying to speak to you through this Scripture passage?
4. What will you take away from this prayerful exercise? How might you take what God spoke to you and apply it to your life right now?
