

Growing Closer to the Holy Spirit

Karen May

Reflective Questions

“When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind,* and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” Acts. 1:1-4

1. Karen talks about the importance and the beauty having a relationship with the Holy Spirit. One way to foster that relationship is to read the scriptures. In what ways could you strive to develop a stronger relationship with the Holy Spirit?
2. We don't always have to experience receiving the Holy Spirit in huge, majestic ways. Often, He is there in little moments of our lives, and we just have to allow Him to speak to us. Have you ever noticed these moments? How did that affect you in your life?
3. There may be times that we can be instruments of the Holy Spirit to others with simple small daily acts of kindness whether through some words of encouragement, or even through a simple smile. Is this something that you allow to happen in your life daily? In what small ways can you improve on this?
